Brigantine Farmers Market Application

Dear Market Applicant,

There is no application fee. A completed Application (page 6) is all you need to submit at this time. All vendors are asked to complete the entire application, including signature. Do not send a check with your application. If your application has been approved, we will notify you that payment is due.

The Brigantine Farmers Market Committee, further known as the BFMC, will fully evaluate every application to determine if your product meets the criteria for participation in the Brigantine Farmers Market. Each application is reviewed and voted on based on our requirements, and how to best serve our community and the best interest of the vendors. You will be notified of the BFMC's decision.

Requirements. In order to be considered as a vendor, you must meet the following criteria. Our core vendors are farmers and food producers. They farm, fish or keep orchards; they grow flowers and horticultural plants; they raise livestock; they keep bees or raise chickens. Other vendors are artists or artisans who prepare foods, bake, create pottery, make jewelry, or create another original craft, roast coffee and other value-added food businesses. There is no resale of items permitted at our Farmers Market, unless it is an accompaniment to the actual product approved. For example, if your core business is the creation of dips, we would permit the resale of a chip or cracker to accompany it.

Full Season Vendors. Full season vendors commit to and prepay an entire season's worth of Saturdays and receive a financial discount and preferential treatment for that commitment.

Pop-Up Vendors. We do sometimes have spaces available for a rotating roster of Pop-Up Vendors who commit to and prepay one or more Saturdays. Pop-Up Vendors must meet the same requirements as full time vendors and are subject to the same rules and regulations as Full Season Vendors.

Legal Requirements. All vendors must be a licensed business covered by substantial business liability insurance (minimum $1,000,000/1,000,000) and naming City of Brigantine as additional insured. All foods must be prepared in licensed commercial kitchens (which can never be your home kitchen). Food businesses must receive Mobile Vendor licenses from the Atlantic County Board of Health, which will also inspect all vendor kitchens and periodically inspect vendor booths at the Market.

If you have a product that meets our requirements and can meet the legal requirements, we'd be delighted to consider you for inclusion in our Market. Good luck and thank you for your interest.

Respectfully,

The Brigantine Farmers Market Committee

VENDOR INFORMATION— BRIGANTINE FARMERS MARKET

I. DESCRIPTION OF SERVICES

1.01 BACKGROUND

The goal of the BRIGANTINE FARMERS MARKET is to bring fresh and locally grown produce and artisanal products to Brigantine residents and visitors. This mission helps to sustain and preserve farms in our Garden State, contributes to the public health and increases community awareness of sustainability by interacting with farmers and artisans.

The market is backed by the City of Brigantine and operated as a community service by the Brigantine Farmers Market Committee, a sub-set of the Brigantine Green Team. The BFMC is an all-volunteer group of full and part-time Brigantine residents. The BFMC plans, manages, and promotes the market, assisted by a larger group of volunteers and friends who provide essential market day support. The Market's yearly operating budget is comprised of participants' Market fees and sponsor contributions.

The market rules are the standards by which the BRIGANTINE FARMERS MARKET operates. Participants must abide by these standards: failure to adhere to the standards may result in loss of permission to sell.

The Brigantine Farmers Market will be open to customers in May on the Saturday of Memorial Day weekend and will run every Saturday (rain or shine) until the Saturday of Labor Day weekend. May 28, 2022, through September 3, 2022, with two Fall dates to be determined. Market hours will be between 8:00 am – 12:00 Noon.
