City of Brigantine Hometown Heroes Program Information

City of Brigantine Veteran Banner Program – Launching 2025

The City of Brigantine is proud to announce the launch of the Veteran Banner Program, beginning in 2025. This heartfelt initiative is dedicated to honoring and remembering both living and deceased Veterans who have resided in Brigantine and were separated from their families or home of record due to active military service (excluding training assignments).

Eligibility & Review

All applications will be reviewed for eligibility and must meet program guidelines before approval.

Program Details

- Display Locations: Banners will be prominently displayed along the Promenade and within the city's three Business Districts, where banner-compatible poles exist.
 - Placement: The City will determine banner placement. Specific display locations cannot be selected by sponsors.
 - Display Period: Banners will be exhibited from Memorial Day through Veterans Day each year. They may be temporarily removed due to severe weather conditions.
 - Banner Duration: Each banner will remain on display for a period of three (3) years. At the end of the term, banners may be returned to the sponsor. Sponsors may purchase a new banner, subject to space availability.

Application & Payment Information

- Banner Cost: $150 per banner. Payment is required in full before the order is processed.
- Payment Methods:
 - Check: Payable to City of Brigantine
 - Credit Card: Available at the Administration Office in City Hall (Door 2) — processing fee applies

We are honored to recognize the bravery and sacrifice of Brigantine's Veterans through this lasting tribute. Thank you for helping us celebrate our community's heroes.
