The occurrence of any one or more of the following events shall constitute an “event of default”:

- 1) Upon the occurrence of any event of default which remains uncured after notification as provided for elsewhere in this Agreement, the City shall have the right to terminate this Agreement. If this Agreement is terminated by the City as described herein, such termination shall extinguish the rights of Concessionaire provided for in this Agreement including all rights relating to the then current golfing season and all subsequent seasons and all available options under the Agreement.
- 2) City may (but shall not be required to) cure for the account of Vendor any such default of Vendor and immediately recover as Additional Payment any expenditure made and the amount of any obligations incurred in connection therewith, plus interest at the rate of four (4 %) percent per annum over the prime rate (as said rate is published from time to time in the Wall Street Journal) from the date of such expenditure;
- 3) City may accelerate all payment and additional payment due for the balance of the term of this Agreement and declare the same to be immediately due and payable;
- 4) City, at its option, may serve notice upon Vendor that this Agreement and the then unexpired term hereof and all renewal options shall cease and expire and become absolutely void on the date specified in such notice, to be not less than sixty (60) days after the date of such notice without any right on the part of the Vendor to save the forfeiture by payment of any sum due or by the performance of any terms, provision, covenant, agreement or condition broken; and, thereupon and at the expiration of the time limit in such notice, this Agreement and the term hereof (and any extensions thereto) granted, hereunder, shall wholly cease and expire and become void in the same manner and with the same force and effect (except as to Vendor's liability) as if the date fixed in such notice were the date herein granted for expiration of the term of this Agreement. Thereupon, Vendor shall immediately quit and surrender to City the Premises by summary proceedings, detainer, ejectment or otherwise and remove all occupants thereof and, at City's option, any property thereon without being liable to indictment, prosecution or damages therefore. No such expiration or termination of this Agreement shall relieve Vendor of its liability and obligations under this Agreement, whether or not the Premises shall be re-let;
- 5) City may, at any time after the occurrence of any event of default, reenter and repossess the Premises and any part thereof and attempt in its own name, as agent for Vendor if this Agreement is not terminated or in its own behalf if this Agreement is terminated, to re-let or any part of such Premises for and upon such terms and to such persons, firms or corporations and for such period or periods as City in its sole discretion shall determine, including a term beyond the termination of this Agreement; and City shall not be required to accept any Vendor offered by Vendor or observe any instruction given by Vendor about such re-letting or mitigation of damages. For the purpose of such re-letting, City may decorate or make repairs, changes, alternations or additions in or to the Premises to the extent deemed by City desirable or convenient; and the costs of such decorations, repairs, changes, alterations, or additions shall be charged to and be payable by Vendor as Additional Payment hereunder, along with any reasonable brokerage and legal fees expended by City; and any sums collected by City from any new Vendor obtained on account of the Vendor shall be credited against the balance of the payment due hereunder as aforesaid. Vendor shall pay to City monthly, on the days when the payment would have been payable under this Agreement, the amount due hereunder less the amount obtained by City from such new Vendor;

- 6) City shall have the right of injunction, in the event of a breach or threatened breach by Vendor of any of the agreements, conditions, covenants or terms hereof, including the actual or threatened failure to vacate the Premises at the end of the term, to restrain the same and the right to invoke any remedy allowed by the law or in equity, whether or not other remedies, indemnity or reimbursements are herein provided. City shall have the right of distraint upon Vendor's goods pursuant to N.J.S.A. 2A:33-1 et seq. upon adequate notice consistent with due process. The rights and remedies given to City in this Agreement are distinct, separate and cumulative remedies; and no one of them, whether or not exercised by City, shall be deemed to be in exclusion of any of the others.
- 7) In the event Vendor fails to evacuate the Premises upon the expiration of this or any extended term hereunder or upon termination of this Agreement, Vendor shall pay to City double the monthly payment for the month in which this Agreement expired or City may, at its option, pursue any other remedy to which it may be entitled.
- 8) In addition to all remedies provided herein or by law, Vendor shall pay to City reasonable attorney's fees and court costs incurred as a result of such breach.
- 9) No Waiver by Delay. The failure of the City to avail itself of any remedy provided for in this Agreement, or the City's delay in seeking such remedy, shall not be deemed a waiver of the rights to be enforced thereby, or of any right of enforcement that may accrue in the future. Additionally, the City shall have any other remedies available in law or equity.

The information provided pursuant to this provision shall be kept strictly confidential. There shall be no contact between any proposed vendor and patrons for advanced bookings prior to the date of Agreement award. At the expiration of this Agreement and/or its termination and in accordance with the terms of this Agreement, the Vendor shall provide to the General Manager a complete list of all events booked for the Brigantine Golf Links beyond the date of expiration and/or termination. This list shall be provided to the General Manager not less than forty-five (45) days prior to the date of termination and/or expiration. This list shall provide in addition to the date of any booking, the facilities to be used for such event and a current name and address of a person responsible for the party or parties who have contracted for the use of the facility. In the event that advanced bookings are continued at the Golf Course, the Vendor shall tender to the City any deposits paid on account of such advanced booking and shall thereafter have no claim to such deposits.
